Tournament Rules

1. Tournament entry fee will be $50 per boat.
2. KDFWR rules and regulations apply.
3. Starting position determined by order entry is received. No swapping of starting positions.
4. There will be a live well check at the start of the tournament. No poles over 8ft and no live bait allowed. No trolling.
5. 5 fish limit per boat. No culling will be allowed at scales.
6. There will be a .50 lb. deduction per dead fish. This will be determined by weigh master at scales. Dead fish will not be eligible for Big Fish Award.
7. Any fish deemed to be mutilated, mashed, or altered will be weighed at discretion of the weigh master.
8. When angler turns in fish to weigh master, they become the property of Butler County Bassmasters. The angler(s) will not be allowed to handle the fish or assist in the weigh in process. Weigh master decisions are final.
9. In the case of high water or unsafe water, the tournament will be moved to a new location or cancelled at BCB's discretion.
10. Boats showing up late to weigh-in WILL BE DISQUALIFIED, with the exception of extra ordinary circumstances determined by Butler County Bassmasters officials.
11. All fish will be released to water caught in except trophy fish.
12. There will be a Big Bass pot determined by number of boats.
13. No more than two people per boat. Anglers cannot leave tournament site and return to participate in weigh-in. Anglers must remain in boat during tournament, with the exception of a "call of nature".
14. All boats must be in the water prior to take off.
15. The weigh master will be responsible for the weighing of all fish. The weigh master and at least one other officer must be present before weigh-in can officially starts.
16. Anglers should have a U.S.C.G. approved life jacket on and fastened anytime the outboard engine is in gear. Driver should have kill switch attached to their jacket.
17. SPORTSMANSHIP- Competitors in tournaments are expected to follow high standards of sportsmanship. Any infraction of these fundamental sporting principals may be deemed cause for disqualification. Upon first offense for unsportsmanlike conduct, a verbal reprimand may be assessed. Upon second offense, the penalty will be expulsion from Butler County Bassmasters. Alcohol or narcotic use or possession by any competitor during the tournament or weigh-in will not be tolerated and shall be cause for immediate disqualification and/or expulsion from Butler County Bassmasters events.
